Decision

Conference to be ranked/tagged as C

Justification

This conference was unranked before and received a submission to be ranked as B. Considering the metrics it was decided that a C rank is appropriate. This is a small conference with 50-70 submissions and acceptance rates around 40/50%. The centiles for author strength and citation are well below other C-ranked conferences. h5 of this venue is 18; PC is weak though established people in PC are publishing in this venue. However, they are not generally publishing in top venues.
