Policies

Chair Selection: On each CLEI Conference edition, there two general chairs and two main chairs by simposium. On each case, one chair is designated by the local organization and the other one is proposed by the CLEI organization. They must be Dr. or PhD and have an extensive experience in CLEI and Ibero-American events, as organizers, researchers, and participants.
Each pair of main chairs of simposia, must conform the PC members list by considering: * For each PC member: - The last title (must be Dr or PhD) - Experience as researcher in the specif area of the corresponding simposium (google scholar, list of publications) - Faultless ethics and morals
* For the whole list: - Balance in the participation of different genders. - Balance in the participation of all member countries of the CLEI organization. - Participation of recognized researchers from no member countries of the CLEI organization.
No Policies.
