Further details: The Conference Proceedings, including final versions of all accepted papers, separated by category (full and short papers), are published by SCITEPRESS, under an ISBN and, for conferences held on an annual basis, also under an ISSN. The proceedings are obtainable both on paper and digital support, and are available online at the SCITEPRESS Digital Library (www.scitepress.org). Access to all papers is free for all researchers, in an open access way. Anyone who wishes to access any paper needs only to get a free user account to login. Besides the regular conference proceedings publication by SCITEPRESS, the conference has also an agreement with Springer (CCIS series) to publish a short list of revised and extended versions of papers presented at the conference. The next year edition the conference has also an agreement with the Springer Nature Computer Science journal to publish a short list of CSEDU 2021 best papers.

Policies

Chair Selection: The chairs are selected each year by a committee composed by the prior chairs and the board of the main sponsor (INSTICC). The candidates are first of all the prior chairs, who are usually rotating in a regular basis, after a few years on the same position. When the prior chairs rotate and a position is open, the list of candidates is composed by the highest h-index members of the program committee, prior keynote speakers and frequent authors, who are familiar with the conference processes. Occasionally, are added to the list of candidates other internationally distinguished researchers, who are proposed by colleagues belonging to the initial list of candidates. Criteria to be actually invited to become conference chair or program chair include the level of expertise and recognition, based on Google Scholar h-index or Scopus h-index, combined with the coverage of the conference topics, based on the candidate list of publications in these indexes as well as in dblp, R&D projects participation, and also, to a lesser extent, gender and international representativeness.

Other Information

Comparator Comparison

Comparator

International Computing Education Research Workshop

Explanation as to why conference is superior to comparator:
- The acceptance rate of CSEDU is lower than ICER. - CSEDU has, in average, more and better keynote speakers than ICER, although its difficult to demonstrate that because ICER has no information about prior editions in their website. - The chairs of our conference are distinguished researchers whose h-index is comparable to the comparator event chairs.

Comparator

International Conference on Computers in Education

Explanation as to why conference is superior to comparator:
- The acceptance rate of CSEDU is lower than ICCE. - The chairs of our conference are distinguished researchers whose h-index is comparable to the comparator event chairs. - ICCE is not listed in Google Scholar either. - The quality of our conference benefits from some stability of the conference/program chairs, as it rotates part of the chairs every few years, unlike the comparator, which has different chairs more frequently.

`http://portal.core.edu.au/core/media/conference_submission_2020/Data_Comparator_for_1451_647.pdf`

Other Relvant Info

Other relevant information: - CSEDU has a double-blind review process, each paper being reviewed by at least 3 members of the program committee, but often more than that, and the program committee is composed by researchers who are active and well respected internationally, with high h-indexes.
- The technical program of CSEDU always includes keynote speakers who are internationally distinguished researchers in the topic areas of CSEDU, such as: Pierre Dillenbourg, EPFL - h-index: 60 Rob Koper, Open University of the Netherlands - h-index: 54 Yannis Dimitriadis, School of Telecommunications Engineering, University of Valladolid - h-index: 43 Martin Ebner, Technische Universität Graz - h-index: 41 Michael Baker, CNRS - h-index: 39 Nikol Rummel, Bochum University - h-index: 35 Maria Roussou, University of Athens - h-index: 32 Leon Rothkrantz, Delft University of Technology - h-index: 31
- The conference is well integrated in the research and academic network, including some institutional partners that collaborate to increase the quality and visibility of the conference, such as ACM, IEEE, Springer, OMG, WfMC, SEFI, EATEL, IGIP, ASEE, ICDE, IELA, and others indicated on its website of the current and previous editions.
