ACM Transactions on Information Systems

This journal was reviewed by the 0806 committee in 2019 because of its mixed numeric citation indicators, although we note that citescore, SNIP and %cited were all quite strong.

The editorial Board is strong with a mix of very senior and more junior members, with an average h-index of 39. They publish in strong CS venues such as SIGIR. The Board is also reasonably engaged with the journal with about 50% of them publishing there over the last 10 years.

A collection of top people from Google Scholar with the tag Information Retrieval shows TOIS as being amongst the most popular publication venues for this group of prominent researchers.

This information taken as a whole, suggests the journal is correctly ranked as A.
