Information Systems

This journal was reviewed by the 0806 committee in 2019 because of its mixed numeric citation indicators: CiteScore and SNIP above 85% against the reference group, yet other indicators at the 70% percentile level.

The thirty members of the editorial board have an average GS h-index of 41.5, and a median h-index of 40.5.

Of the thirty, 26 board members could be located for WPP purposes. Eleven of the 26 had published in Information Systems in the last five years, and total of 42 papers; and it was the second ranked journal for this group, behind PVLDB (thirteen authors, 66 papers).

Information Systems had a recognition rate of 25% in the 0806 area in the 2017 CORE survey.

Given these statistics, the 0806 committee recommends that Information Systems retain its A* rating in the CORE journal rankings.
