Scimago is solid. Board has some strong members, but is not to the standard of A*, with many Board members having h-index under 20. Board members are fairly active publishing there. Of 5 experts provided, 3 had published there multiple times over 10 years. With 31 top GS cybersecurity people, WPP showed 8 had published there, over last 10 years, but 6 of the 8 only once. This looks like it should remain as A.
