The committee considered PACBB to be Regional. With the exception of 2020 (planned to be in Italy, but held online - although this was not noted in the application), it has been held in Spain (except for one time in Portugal). The submitters were contacted, and indicated they considered "National(Spain)" appropriate. A future submission (once the event has built up international presence by being held in more places) would need to clearly address reviewing practices, e.g. clarifying whether all full papers were subject to peer reviews, and indicate the number of reviewers per paper.
