CIKM has a high h5-index (54). PC chairs also have strong track record (e.g., with average h-index ~47), and PC members average H-index ranges around 19, with a good mix of junior and senior (up to 40+). PC members actively publish in this venue (among the 34 top PC members, 22 published at least once, and 14 at least in two years). Other venues where the top PC members frequently publish in include A*-conferences such as WWW, SIGIR and A-conferences like ECIR. A. The conference generally receives more than 800 submissions and has an acceptance rate around 20%. One committee member (Hauff) identified a conflict with this conference and was not part of the decision.
