The submission requested a reranking from B to A. The Google h5 index of this conference is 23, its PC median index is 13, established PCs is 30/102, which is below the threshold of an A conference. This conference was published at 101 times by 24 of 30 experts in the last 5 years, which indicates the established researchers do publish their work in this venue. However, the committee determined that the standing of this venue in the community did not warrant a rank of A as requested, and have retained the B ranking. The number/percentage of established researchers on the PC is lower than would normally be the case for an A venue.

The citation centile data of this conference says that it has 10.1% at top 25th centile and 34.8% at top 50th centile, compared with other A/A* conferences, which is much below in comparison with other A*/A conferences. Its index25 data says that this conference is 7.8% at top 10th centile, 10.1% at top 25th centile, and 31.4% at top 50th centile compared with other A*/A conferences, which indicates that its established researchers do publish their work in this venue, but is still below the threshold of A*/A conferences. Also, this conference is not ranked by CCF. It is not in itself sufficient indication to justify reranking as A.
