ITCS was provided as a comparator conference. The conference is currently ranked A, which was found to be justified. The conference publishes around 60 papers per year with an acceptance rate in the 30's. Its h5-index is 31, which is on the higher end of A-ranked conferences in FOR 4613. Based on the strong people involved with the conference, its high citation numbers, and the quality of papers published at the conference, the committee finds that this is a strong A conference.
