The submission requested to retain the rank of A, which was found to be justified. The conference is very broad, compared to its size. It has very good name recognition, a very good standing in this broad community, and very strong people leading the conference. It has an h5-index of 18, which is appropriate for an A-ranked conference in this area. Acceptance rates average in the low 40's which is appropriate for an A-ranked conference in FOR4613.
